In “Shamans & Spirit Guides,” Tim Harrier embarks on a spiritual odyssey, weaving together the corporeal and the mystical. His unique combination of photographic skill and deep esoteric understanding serves as a bridge, guiding viewers through a rich landscape of shamanic wisdom. The exhibition is a vibrant tapestry of symbolism, featuring Shamans, Shamanka, Kachina, and animal guides such as Owls and Ravens, each depicted with intricate detail that transcends their visual medium.

Harrier’s photographs are not merely images; they are portals to a deeper connection and understanding, crafted with over 30 layers of detail. His exceptional ability to merge the analog with the digital mirrors the interconnectedness at the heart of the exhibition, celebrating our bonds with animal guides and the universe itself.

This journey invites us to look beyond the surface, exploring the essence of existence and the unspoken bonds that link us to the natural and cosmic realms.

“Shamans & Spirit Guides” is more than an exhibition; it is a sacred voyage into the celestial, offering a unique blend of shamanic wisdom and artistic beauty. Tim Harrier, acting as both creator and curator, guides us into a world where the visible and invisible interlace, urging us to open our hearts and spirits to the mysteries of the profound. Join us at Eisele Gallery for this extraordinary adventure, a tribute to the mystical connections that bind the world together.
